

2 PCS FINALISTS WIN MAT TITLES

Don Handy, Ron VanKuren Qualify For Sectionals

Following through on the heels of their undefeated season records, Perry Central School grapplers Don Handy and Ron VanKuren captured the county championships, in the 120 lb. and 103 lb. classes respectively, at the match finals held in the local school gym last Friday night.

Losing their bouts were the other three Perry finalists: Pete Densmore, Dave Langdon, and Gerry Winter. Handy and VanKuren will join the Perry volleyball champs and the Yellowjacket five-man bowling team titleholders in the Sectionals which will be run off this Saturday morning and afternoon at John Marshall high school, Rochester.

Match Results

The results of Friday's matches are as follows:

95 lbs.—Ray Robinson, Warsaw, gained a decision over John West, Attica; 103 lbs.—Ron VanKuren, Perry, won by a forfeit when his opponent, James Goodnoe, Warsaw, was unable to meet the weight (a match was held anyway and VanKuren won by a pin).

112 lbs.—Ken Swyers, Letchworth, defeated Burton Fugle, Attica; 120 lbs.—Don Handy, Perry, gained a decision over Bernard Balmas, Letchworth; 127 lbs.—Bob Gerould, Warsaw, defeated Dick Vincent, Letchworth.
