

High School Matmen Wear Nine Livingston County Champion Crowns

Dansville Central High School won nine of 12 Livingston County wrestling titles when the county match was staged at Caledonia Saturday.

The Livingston winners will square off against Monroe County champions at the Section 5 quarter-finals in the elementary school gym here Thursday at 7 p.m.

Jim Brokaw will be the 95-lb. representative as he was unopposed in the county scramble.

His brother, Junior won the 103-lb. crown with a decision over J. Gerald of Geneseo. Ted Jenkins walked off with the 127-lb. jewel with a decision over Ron Claud of Geneseo.

Russ Clark captured the 133-lb. toga by whipping Richard Claud of Geneseo and Bob Briggs will go in the 138-lb. clash by virtue of Pinning J. Lemon of Livonia in Saturday's test.

Jim Mahoney continued undefeated for the season, decisioning G. Davis of Livonia for the 145-lb. crown and Jerry Lander pinned B. Heidt of Geneseo to take the 154-lb. match.

Harold Pfunter kept the Dansville streak moving by decisioning R. Fisher of Caledonia in the 165-lb. match and Bob Walker completed the turn by winning the unlimited bout with R. Bovee of Caledonia.

Gary Harter and Dewey Sensabaugh were the only two Mustang matmen to drop decisions. Harter was beaten in the 120-lb. feature by G. Griffin of Geneseo and Sensabaugh dropped a decision to B. Foose of Geneseo in the 180-lb. contest.

G. Sintzenick of Livonia won over R. McCauley of Geneseo for the right to the 112-lb. sectional berth. Dansville's entry failed to make the finals in this event.

Coach John Ordiway's team tuned up for the county matches with a 23-16 victory over the touted Letchworth squad there Friday. The two teams had tied in their first meeting earlier in the season.

Posting victories in this match were Clark, Ken Worden, Briggs, Mahoney and Lander. Junior Brokaw gained points by tying his Letchworth opponent in the 112-lb. battle.
