

Wrestlers Down U of R 29-8

Carl Reistrom Wins Thriller

By Tom Fencil

The Laker grapplers defeated the University of Rochester on Wednesday night by a 29-8 score. The highlight of the match was Carl Reistrom's takedown of Ed Thomas in the final second to gain a 4-3 decision. Thomas had this week been chosen UR's Athlete of the Week and is an outstanding football player for the Yellowjackets.

Wrestling Coach James Howard was pleased as well with the performances of Brian McGann and Frank Friscano who provided back-to-back pins. Pins had been hard to come by since the month long lay off of exams and the storm.

For the first time of the season, the Lakers did not forfeit a match. Gary Wright wrestled in the 145 lb. class with heavily taped ankles and knees, and eventually lost 8-3, but the three points he dropped for the decision were better than the 5 points for a forfeit.

Dick Baldwin wrestled his first

Lindell Comments On Wrestling Rules

Donald D. Lindell, varsity wrestling coach at Plattsburg State, author of an article that appeared in the December issue of the "Athletic Journal."

The title of the article is "Pinning Still Has a Place in Wrestling".

In the article, Lindell explained the situations in which the use of the fall can be utilized in winning wrestling matches, even though this year's rule changes stress winning by decisions.

match of the season, and easily decisioned Larry Kramer, 11-4. Baldwin had previously been backing up Phil Toner who is now on the injured list.

The Lakers travel to Ithaca College today for what should prove to be a tight match. IC recently defeated Cortland's Dragons by three points, 18-15.

It was also announced today that the "snowed-out" University of Buffalo match will be held at 2:00 p.m. on March 5, 1966.

Photo by John Preves

Carl Reistrom is pictured above. Reistrom decisioned the University of Rochester's "Athlete of the Week" in last Wednesday's match in the final second.