

Edison Tech Wrestlers Seek City Championship Tonight

Edison Tech, Interscholastic League wrestling champion, will try to lock up the 21st annual City Wrestling Tournament tonight at 7 o'clock at East High.

The Inventors lead runnersup Jefferson and Marshall by four points. Tech has 12 points going into the final day of action.

Lou Masi of Jeff and Casper Pizzo of Edison will be seeking their third consecutive city crowns.

Masi, who wrestles at 141 pounds this year, was 1966

Section 5 champ at 130 and is unbeaten thus far in 1966-67. Pizzo wrestles at 183 and is also undefeated this season.

Four other unbeaten wrestlers are in the semifinals. They are East's Ernie Smith at 98, Edison's Doug Rhodes at 141, Madison's Robert Rosier at 157 and Jeff's Andy Pilato at heavyweight. Rhodes tangles with Masi in one of the key battles tonight.

The champions will represent the Interscholastic League in the Section 5 Tournament Saturday at East Rochester High.
