Sophomore Mike O'Connell rides his Eastridge opponent hard. Mike took the State title at 98 pounds.

Captain Rick Barry displays the form that lead him to a perfect season and the State Championship title at 122 pounds.

With only six letter winners returning, Mr. Chadwick had his work cut out for him in trying to put together a winning combination. With enthusiasm and dedication at practice, the grappling squad soon became invincible in the City-Catholic League competition. This was shown when our scufflers spoiled Madison's bid for the title and outscored the league champion, McQuaid, and runner-up, Mooney, in the Diocesan Tourney.

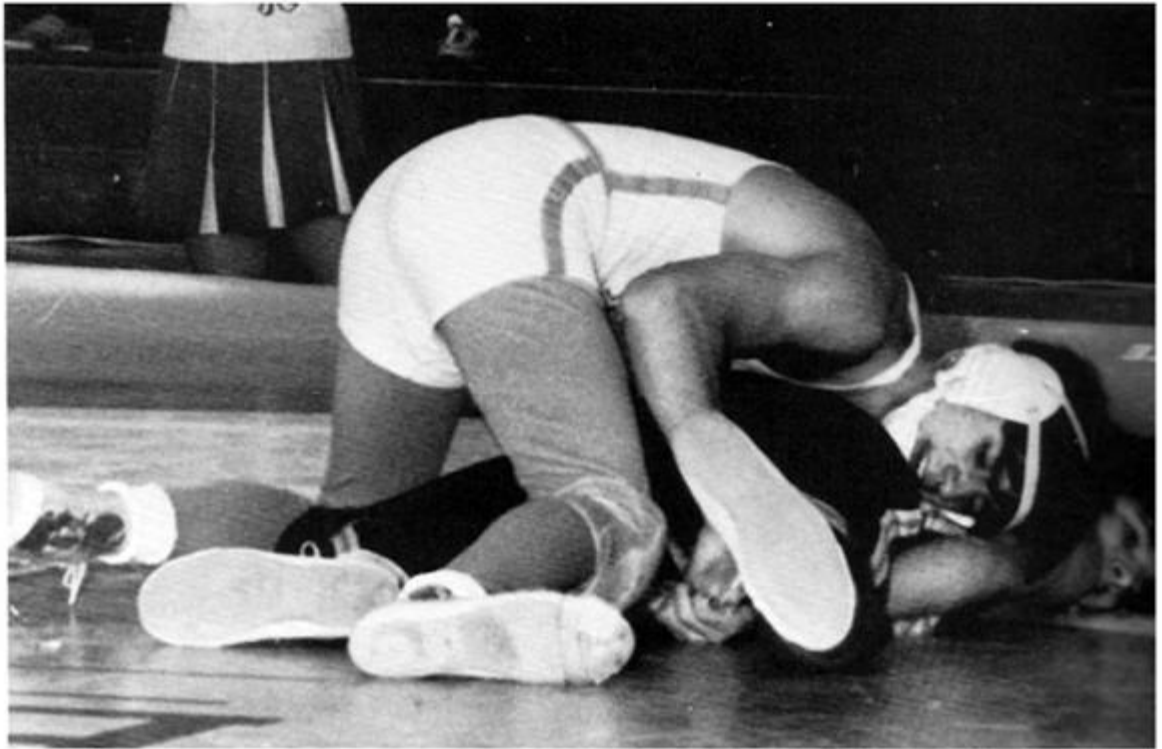

The team lost its league matches early in the season, primarily due to the inexperience of most members. In all three of its C-C loses, the final outcome was dependent upon the last match.

Once again our wrestlers were characterized by two outstanding strong points: its fighting spirit, that boasted having only 12 BK matmen pinned, and its powerful lightweights, four of which were sent to Syracuse to compete in the NYS Catholic Tournament. In this tourney, three came back with state titles.

Junior Mark Caufield bar-arms his West High opponent to win a hard-earned victory.

Pete Alano rides out his Cardinal Mooney opponent en route to a 13-0 victory.

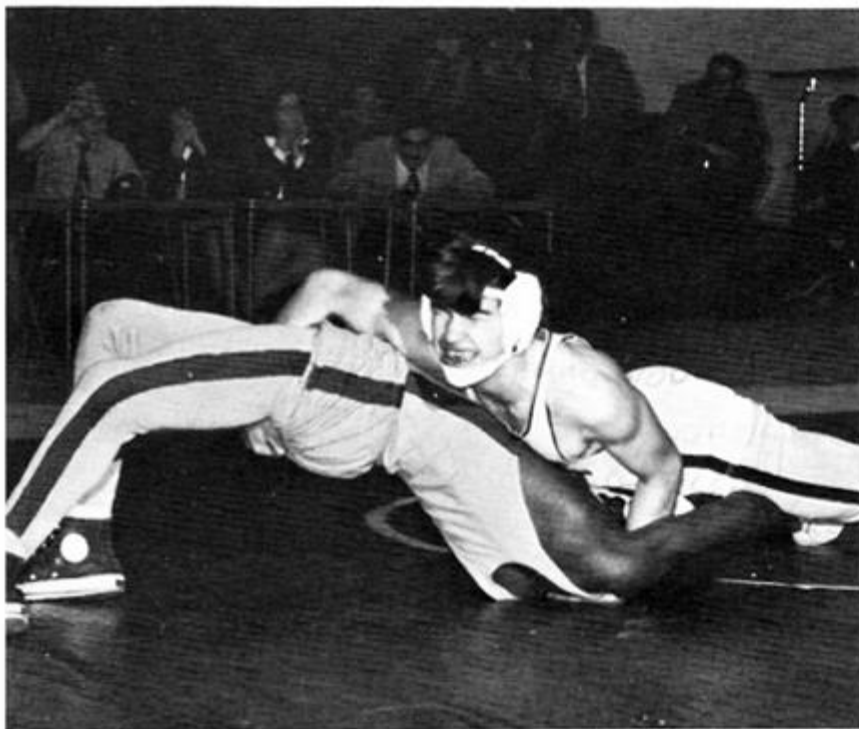

Senior Bill Welch ankle-picks his victim.

The 1971 JV wrestling team compiled a tremendous record in capturing the City-Catholic League Crown. They suffered their sole league defeat to East in a close, competitive match. With Mr. Brucato's guidance, the JV grapplers showed great enthusiasm and talent in achieving this deserving title.

Freshman wrestling

Through the hard efforts of Brother Treacy and Mr. Virgo, the freshman grapplers gained much experience in their exciting wrestling season. The squad did very well against its competitors although there is no recorded evidence to prove this since team scores were not kept. However, scores of individual matches were compiled. The frosh team's accomplishments exhibit great potential for the coming years.

The team wrestled the following powerhouses: Spencerport (twice), Cardinal Mooney (once), McQuaid (once), Gates-Chili (twice), Webster (twice), Eastridge (once), Rush Henrietta (twice).
