

Spencerport handles Attica in non-league wrestling

STAFF REPORTS

ATTICA — Spencerport extended its dominance over Section V wrestling yesterday, defeating Attica 30-13 in a key non-league match.

Roundup

Kevin Sawyer decided Clayton Conway, 11-4, at 125 pounds for visiting Spencerport (8-0, 10-0). No. 1 in the Democrat and Chronicle large-schools poll, while Attica is No. 2.

The match was close until the third period, when Sawyer capitalized on some scramble situations. That pushed the Rangers, ranked third in the recent state large-schools poll, to a 7-6 lead. Spencerport won the next four matches to take control of the meet.

Senior Joe Celento decided Josh Kibler 4-2 in the 160-pound weight class for Spencerport.

Senior Brandon Morris upset Chuck Olas, decisioning him 4-3 in overtime at 119 pounds for Attica (7-0, 15-2), ranked eighth in the latest state poll. Morris took a 2-0 lead in the second period, but Olas tied it before the end of regulation. Both wrestlers had opportunities in overtime. Morris scored a takedown with about 30 seconds remaining to clinch the victory.

Senior Matt VanSon decisioned Don Zimmerman 15-7 at 152 pounds for the Blue Devils. VanSon set the tone and scored a five-point move early, countering a single-leg takedown by Olas. Zimmerman defeated VanSon 12-10 early this year.

"They were relentless and didn't give up and really that was the difference in the match," Attica coach Eric Romesser said. "We juggled our lineup, dropped a couple of guys down and moved a couple of guys up. I knew we had to change some things around to give us an opportunity to win the dual meet."
